Dorian

Character Guide

Dorian Pavus

Born into a powerful Tevinter family, Dorian's magical virtuosity made his entry into the Magisterium seemingly ineluctable. However, he grew frustrated with the zealotry of his mentor and abandoned his duties. He fled to join the Inquisition, believing he could not return without first eliminating the forces corrupting his home.

Dorian dons an ashen mage's cloak, embellished with the image of a twisting viper. A satchel is positioned on his belt, a place to store reagents. Leather gauntlets provide excellent grip for his staff, which he swings about with great dexterity. A coiled viper clasp secures his cloak—a reminder that the bite of his magic can sting as much as his wit.
