DRAGON AGE INQUISITION

Vivienne

Character Guide

Enchanter to the Imperial Court

CONQUER EVERYTHING WHILE LOOKING fabulous—such is the way of Vivienne. Ever poised and composed, Madame de Fer is never out of her element.

What little armor she allows herself is cleverly hidden, and save for the rolled edges of her breast plate, there's little evidence of the hard steel beneath. The cuirass is wrapped in linen overlaid with strips of silk, bringing the elegance of a ball gown to the battlefield.

Pearls and white gold cover her from head to toe, and to see her out in the wild one can't help but feel that the trees are underdressed.
